

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The airing of an anti-Kerry documentary is clearly meant to dissuade voters from choosing Kerry on election day, and the fact that the Sinclair Group has donated vast sums of money to the GOP underscores the blatant partisan move undertaken by Sinclair. This is not in the public interest, it is a vile tactic that is in the interest of only one entity, the Sinclair Corporation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Please stop our media corporations from voicing partisan opinions disguised as news. Stop Sinclair from broadcasting the anti-Kerry documentary. Thank you.
